THE DESIRABLE RESIDENCE TO BE SOLD—A BARGAIN.

Full Particulars of the Auctioneers.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

NO CHEQUES TAKEN.

- FIRST.—That the highest bidder shall be the purchaser; and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again and resold at the discretion of the Auctioneer who reserves to himself the right to refuse any bidding he pleases, without assigning any reason for so doing, or withdrawing any particular lots or part of any lot.
- SECOND.—No person to advance less at each bidding than 1s.; above two pounds, 2s.; and so on in proportion, and not to retract a bidding when once named.
- THIRD.—Each Purchaser to pay down at the fall of the hammer a deposit of 25 PER CENT., and, if required, to give in his or her name, and place of abode. In the event of the purchaser buying more lots than one, he is not to be entitled to clear one lot without at the same time clearing the whole of his purchases; and any deposit paid is to be applicable to any lot or every lot so purchased.
- FOURTH.—The lots to lie at the risk of the purchasers from the time of sale, and to be cleared away before 4 p.m. on Friday, June 16th (the day after the Sale), at the buyer's expense, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid (in cash) to the Auctioneers before delivery, with all faults and deficiencies, and without any allowance for error in description, quantity, or measurement. The Auctioneer does not guarantee the authenticity of any lot.
- FIFTH.—The purchasers to be answerable for all damage they may do to any lots, or to the premises, in taking down or removing their respective lots; also to properly repair the same before their lots are removed from the premises.
- LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with any of the above conditions, the deposit money to be forfeited, the lot or lots to be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) occasioned by such re-sale, together with the charges attending the same, to be made good by the defaulter at this present sale.

NO LOTS WILL BE TRANSFERRED, OR DELIVERED
DURING THE SALE.

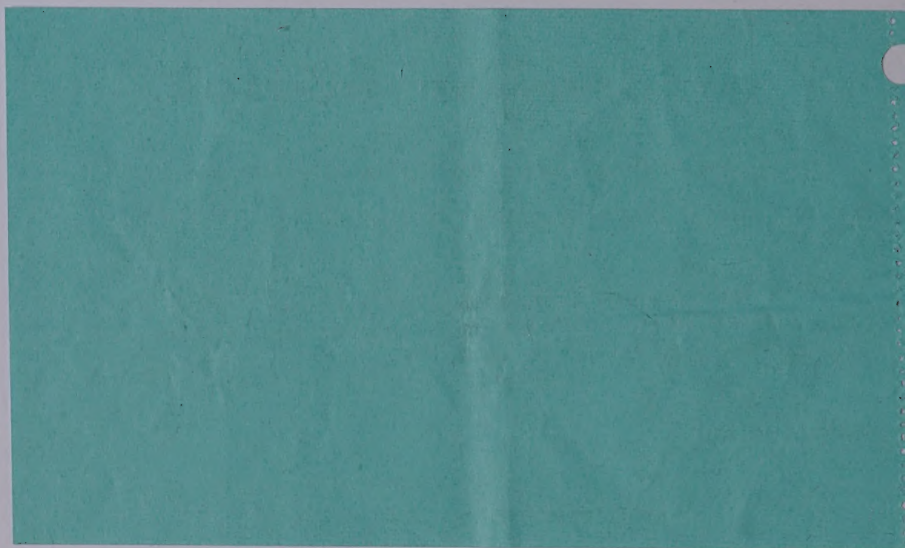

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
